

This substantial renovation has transformed a highly exposed, west-facing waterfront double block into a private and tranquil oasis. The disciplines of architecture and interior design have successfully combined to fulfil the client brief to create a home that is a “resort away from resort”.

A restrained palette of materials, textures, and colours create a warm, inviting and contemporary interior that complements its water views. The result is a home that makes the most of its visual proximity to the water.

PHOTOGRAPHER | RICHARD GLOVER

