

Kardinia Road House 2

Mosman | Renovation | 2015

This project involved transforming a bland 1970's house into a traditional styled family home.

Externally, new sandstone cladding, timber windows and standing seam metal roofing were installed. Internally, stained oak flooring and timber panels were used to give the house a restrained classic feel.

