

This existing apartment has been completely reimagined through extensive renovation that introduces a highly functional new layout, enhances natural light, and takes full advantage of the sweeping views of the Harbour Bridge, Opera House, and the city skyline.

Streamlined joinery and discreetly concealed doors creates a visually clean and simplified interior and reinforces the sense of calming tranquil retreat from the surrounding environment, and provides a contemporary feel throughout the home.

PHOTOGRAPHER | TOM FERGUSON

