

In a prominent position only 100 metres from Mosman Junction, this contemporary styled duplex apartment building has been designed to capture stunning views over Balmoral whilst incorporating luxury finishes throughout. The duplex is well integrated into the surrounding built environment and along with the carefully designed landscaped gardens, creates a successful example of beachside apartment living.

Photographer: Craig Bryant