

This classically styled apartment complex includes 39 luxury apartments and a commercial space. The building has 11 levels and the lift core services 6 apartments per level. It was designed as an infill to the adjacent heritage listed apartment buildings of Macleay Street. All apartments include generous living spaces, large undercover terraces and high quality finishes and joinery elements.

Photographer: Craig Bryant