

This project involved the rebuilding of a 1970's steel framed marina workshop. The refurbishment involved the significant upgrade of a dilapidated workshop structure to provide an impressive commercial building sitting comfortably in the waterfront context.

The building received the BHP 1996 Certificate of Merit Award for Steel Buildings.

Photographer: Craig Bryant