

This existing two-storey federation house had dramatic views over Sirius Cove but no outdoor entertaining areas to take full advantage of it. A major refurbishment was undertaken to add a new kitchen and open-plan living and dining area, designed with contemporary detailing with expansive areas of glass to maximise views. Large sliding doors open to a new three metre covered deck suspended out from the living room. What was once an enclosed dark home has become an open home that takes full advantage of the views.

Photographer: Craig Bryant