

Shellbank Avenue House 3

Mosman | Renovation | 2009

Located on a large and prominent waterfront site, three existing buildings were completely stripped back and transformed with a new external facade featuring a combination of sandstone, zinc and timber cladding. Internally, planning was reconfigured and rebuilt to provide a more functional layout.

The result is a smart contemporary home in a beautiful new landscape setting.

