

Sited on a 1700m² block with outstanding views over Balmoral Beach and Sydney Harbour, this substantial 800m² home provided the clients with the perfect opportunity for personalisation. Using a combination of traditional and contemporary design elements and a rich palette of colours and finishes, the house was designed to reference the client's heritage. The end result is a substantial house that maximises its outstanding location.

PHOTOGRAPHER | CRAIG BRYANT

