

The brief for this three-level waterfront home was to add a lift, wine cellar, guest bathroom and generally refurbish the home to provide a richer background for the client's possessions.

Internally, wall finishes and furnitures were carefully selected to provide a rich and cohesive feel and to compliment the client's extensive collection of art.

Photographer: Craig Bryant