

Wonga Road House

Cremorne | New House | 2010

This home occupies a generous waterfront site orientated northwest with views over Long Bay. With the brief for a large spacious home to accommodate three family generations, this home more than meets these requirements and provides flexibility for any future demands.

