

The Wylde Street Project comprises 24 luxury apartments built on a large but narrow site with spectacular harbour and city views. Built over eight levels, the apartments have been carefully designed to maximise light and space with the interiors incorporating the highest quality finishes and joinery.

Photographer: Craig Bryant