

D'Albora Marina was completely upgraded using environmental building principles including solar energy, rainwater harvesting, recycled materials, natural light and ventilation optimisation.

