

Perched on a harbour reserve cliff face and surrounded by beautiful angophora trees, a 1950's brick box was transformed into a new, contemporary styled residence which takes maximum advantage of an outstanding harbour front site. The interiors and surrounding landscape works reflect the client's love of Bali and incorporate dark timber, white walls and a lush subtropical garden with fishpond. The result is a fine example of a sophisticated house.

PHOTOGRAPHER | CRAIG BRYANT

