

Located on a steep site with sweeping views over Middle Harbour, is a stunning new contemporary house that responds to its difficult site and takes full advantage of its setting.

Spread over five levels, the house steps up the hill, creating large roof terraces, perfect for outdoor entertaining and enjoying spectacular views. The levels are connected with a glass lift and a stair that enables the owners to further enjoy these views.

PHOTOGRAPHER | CRAIG BRYANT

