

Located on a large and prominent waterfront site, three existing buildings comprising the three-storey home, garage and boatshed, were completely stripped back and transformed with a new external facade featuring a combination of sandstone, zinc and timber cladding. Internally, planning was reconfigured and rebuilt to provide a more functional layout. The result is a smart, contemporary home in a beautiful new landscape setting.

PHOTOGRAPHER | RICHARD GLOVER

